FOR THE MIDDLE DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

ROBERT J. MURRAY,

No. 4:21-CV-00122

Plaintiff,

(Chief Judge Brann)

v.

GENE CLARK, et al.,

Defendants.

ORDER

OCTOBER 25, 2021

AND NOW, upon consideration of Plaintiff's numerous letters¹ to the Court and the Clerk of Court, in which Plaintiff discusses his desire to issue subpoenas to certain witnesses, asks for return of discovery materials he claims he mailed to the Court, and expresses frustration with fruitless attempts to get information for his case from prison officials, and the Court noting that subpoenas for witnesses will only be necessary if this case goes to trial, and further observing that this case is well advanced into the discovery stage and dispositive motions are due next month,² IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. Plaintiff must seek discovery materials from opposing counsel pursuant to the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure³ and Local Rules of Court 5.4 and 5.5.

² See Doc. 19.

³ See generally FED. R. CIV. P. 26-37.

2. To date, the Court has not received any discovery materials from Plaintiff, and thus Plaintiff's request for return of said materials is DENIED as moot.
3. Should Plaintiff need additional time to complete discovery, he must file a motion for enlargement of time pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b) and Local Rule of Court 7.5(a).
